LISTER AS PILOT DROPS THE FIRST

Appointment of Rock Island Man as Manager Fails to Change Team's Luck.

Pete Lister of this city, new manager of the Bloomington Three-Eye league team, got away to a bad start yesterday, the team losing the first contest under his management to Decatur. Pete played first and made a good record, individually.

Pete, who formerly played first with the Long Views and has played in various cities since, was appointed manager Tuesday night to succeed Harry Syfert, long time manager of Bloomington, who as bench manager was considered too expensive a luxury in the precarious state of the club's finances, especially since the team was trailing. Lister is expected to keep his regular place at first. He has been with the Bloomers since the season opened and has been fielding well and batting close to a .300 clip.

Cubs Blanked 1-0.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 7.—Three times luck broke in favor of the Pirates after eight and one-half scoreless innings yesterday and the series of smiles from Dame Fortune gave Pittsburg the verdict over the Cubs, 1 to 0. A wild pitch by Larry Cheney let in the lonesome tally. Cheney was trying to pass Ham Hyatt, who batted for Gibson, with runners on first and third, when one of his wide ones shot far to the right of Archer, allowing Konetchy to trot over the plate. The cost of maintaining a first class battleship has risen since 1904 from something less than half a million dollars a year to nearly a million. The naval authorities are trying to reduce this heavy cost, but it is never likely to reach the old figure, although the use of oil fuel makes a large reduction possible in the stokers' department.
